

Martin School of Public Policy and Administration
AMP 4+1 – MPA

General Curriculum Plan

AMP Eligible Grad-Level Courses – 12 credits maximum

- PA 631 Public Financial Management (Fall)
- PA 651 The Policy Process (Fall) OR PA 642 Public and Nonprofit Organization Theory & Behavior (Fall)
- PA 602 Strategic Planning & Organizational Change (Spring)
- Area of Concentration¹ (pre-approved elective)
- Total: 12 credit hours

Graduate Student

Summer

- Internship
- Area of concentration (pre-approved elective; optional semester to offset credit hours)
- Must apply for summer as a post-baccalaureate student to receive credit.
- Total: 3 credit hours

Fall

- PA 621 Quantitative Methods of Research
- PA 651 The Policy Process OR PA 642 Public and Nonprofit Organization Theory & Behavior
- PA 691 Leadership and Ethics in Public Service
- PA 623 Decision Analysis and Support Systems
- PA 711 (1 credit hour) Experiential Learning in Public Administration (internship)
- Total: 13 credit hours

Spring

- PA 622 Public Program Evaluation
- PA 652 Public Policy Economics
- PA 681 Capstone in Public Administration
- Area of concentration (pre-approved elective)
- Total: 12 credit hours

¹ Public Policy undergraduate majors are encouraged to take a PPL 500-level course towards the area of concentration requirement (e.g. PPL 575, 583, or 584).

Note: Please contact the Martin School's Graduate Affairs Officer and Director of Graduate Studies if you deviate from this plan.

Quantitative Research Methods Intensive Plan

Note: It is advised that students pursuing this plan complete statistics and understand regression analysis prior to enrolling in this track.

AMP Eligible Grad-Level Courses – 12 credits maximum

- PA 621 Quantitative Methods of Research (Fall)
- PA 631 Public Financial Management (Fall)
- PA 622* Public Program Evaluation (Spring)
- PA 652 Public Policy Economics (Spring) OR Area of Concentration¹ (pre-approved elective)
- Total: 12 credit hours

*PA 621 is a prerequisite to PA 622.

Graduate Student

Summer

- Internship
- Area of concentration (pre-approved elective; optional semester to offset credit hours)
- Must apply for summer as a post-baccalaureate student to receive credit.
- Total: 3 credit hours

Fall

- PA 651 The Policy Process
- PA 691 Leadership and Ethics in Public Policy
- PA 642 Public and Nonprofit Organization Theory & Behavior
- PA 623 Decision Analysis and Support Systems
- PA 711 (1 credit hour) Experiential Learning in Public Administration (internship)
- Total: 13 credit hours

Spring

- PA 602 Strategic Planning & Organizational Change
- PA 652 Public Policy Economics OR Area of concentration (pre-approved elective)
- PA 681 Capstone in Public Administration
- Area of concentration (pre-approved elective)
- Total: 12 credit hours

¹ Public Policy undergraduate majors are encouraged to take a PPL 500-level course towards the area of concentration requirement (e.g. PPL 575, 583, or 584).

Note: Please contact the Martin School's Graduate Affairs Officer and Director of Graduate Studies if you deviate from this plan.